

Cookie Policy

What is cookie

A cookie is a small piece of data that a website asks your browser to store on your computer or mobile device. A cookie allows your preferences or actions across a site (or across different sites) to be remembered on subsequent visits. Cookies are widely used in order to make websites work or work in a better, more efficient way.

Additional information can be found at: www.aboutcookies.org

Why we use cookies

- To validate the authenticity of persons attempting to gain access to a specific user account.
 - To detect and store language preferences.

Third-party cookies

For some of the functions within our websites we use third party suppliers. We encourage you to consult the privacy policies of these third party vendors on their websites for information regarding their use of cookies.

Third-party service	Description	More details regarding cookie policy
Google Analytics	We use Google Analytics to understand how our media campaigns work and how you interact with our website in order to improve the user experience.	https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage
Onfido	We use Onfido to verify user identity in order to secure the process of converting OIO tokens into fiat currency.	https://onfido.com/cookie-policy/
Intercom	We use Intercom for a live support chat. This cookie is used by Intercom as a session so that users can continue a chat as they move through the site.	https://www.intercom.com/terms-and-policies#cookie-policy

How do you control cookies?

Within your browser you can choose whether you wish to accept cookies or not. Different browsers make different controls available to you. Generally, your browser will offer you the choice to accept, refuse or delete cookies at all times, or those from providers that website owners use i.e. third party cookies, or those from specific websites. Each browser's website should contain instructions on how you can do this.

For further information please refer to: <https://www.aboutcookies.org/how-to-delete-cookies/>

Cookies are used to the essential part of our functionality, so removing, rejecting, or limiting the use of them could affect the availability and functionality of our services.
